Mom's Day 2025

Skullhouse celebrated Mom's Day 2025 on March 29th, proceedings which involved house tours, stories of when brothers were younger, and lessons about day to day activities within the fraternity. Brothers got to meet each other's moms, as well as guess which story went with which brother: some, like one concerning a certain brother hustling a friend out of a toy boat at church, were easily identifiable. Others, not so much. The day was rounded out with a house tour, where the moms got to see certain rooms, as well as learn about house tradition and customs.

Alumni fundraiser

We are incredibly pleased to announce that the first annual Alumni Fundraiser which concluded in mid March, raised over $3,500 for chapter house renovations this summer. A huge thank you to everyone who supported the fundraiser and purchased unique, Skull themed merchandise! All proceeds, as well as a copy of all accounting work, will be turned over to the alumni board once shipping details have been finalized. For those who purchased merchandise, it will be shipped by the second week of April. Thank you again to all alumni who supported the fundraiser!

Alumni Webinar

The beginning of March saw another incredible installment in the successful Skulls Alumni Mentoring Seminars. We had the pleasure of hearing from Thomas Williams, Nick Bellanca, and Taylor McLaughlin about Resume and Interviewing Skills. Brothers learned about how to negotiate starting salaries, conduct comprehensive interview preparation, and align themselves with hiring manager objectives. Thank you very much to Thomas, Nick, and Taylor, as well as everyone else that has presented to us this semester. We have approximately one more seminar planned for this semester, and would like to continue this going forward; please contact me if you are interested in presenting this fall. We welcome your insights on any professional topics you'd like to share.

Spring Break

Brothers travelled far and wide for spring break, notably including a trip down to South Padre Island in Texas. In terms of international destinations, Brothers visited Mexico, Turkey, and several other countries individually. On the whole, spring break offered a restful break from Purdue academics, and revitalized the house to finish the final few weeks of the semester.

At the same time, yet by all accounts significantly less relaxing, Brother and PFC Zach Danek also graduated from Army Basic Training this March. Please join us in congratulating him and welcoming him back to Skullhouse!

To the right, all brothers who attended spring break in South Padre Island, Texas, pose for a picture.
